CCMF SEEKS NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Caribbean Centre for Money and Finance (CCMF) is seeking a dynamic economist or finance specialist with a graduate degree and research or policy experience to become its new Executive Director. The Executive Director heads a small team of dedicated professionals and contractors, who provide policy and information services to Caribbean central banks, financial institutions and regional businesses. The Centre's work is assisted by a distinguished group of research associates. The Centre publishes the Caribbean Economic Performance Report, the Journal of Business Finance and Economics in Emerging Economies (JBF3E), occasional monographs and collected papers volumes, as well as a range of financial and macroeconomic statistics. Its publications are all available online at www.ccmf-uwi.org.

Job Summary

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the successful candidate will have the following key responsibilities:

- To lead the development of a policy research agenda for the Centre
- To secure its financial resources
- To implement the work programme and upgrade services to the domestic, regional and international community.

Key Knowledge and Experience:

- Post-graduate degree in Economics
- A minimum of 5 years' experience at a senior management level
- Working knowledge of, or training in, management, finance or accounting would be an asset
- Sound leadership and management capabilities
- Possession of effective human resource management skills
- Sound record of publications and evidence of continuing research on topics related to economics and finance

Interested persons should contact Dr. DeLisle Worrell, Governor, Central Bank of Barbados and Chair of the Executive Committee of CCMF, at (246) 436 6870 or email Arlette.King@centralbank.org.bb.
